

COP24, Katowice (Pavilion H3)

Future of the IPCC

Thursday, 11 December (13:15 - 14.45)

Contact: Abdalah Mokssit (amokssit@wmo.int)

Even though the core business of the IPCC involves the preparation of Assessment and Special Reports, it also multidimensional and is constantly evolving amidst new challenges that come its way.

This event aims to showcase some of the important activities that IPCC has undertaken, while focusing on the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead. The event also focuses on how you can contribute to the work of the IPCC.
