

COP24, Katowice (Pavilion H3)

Partnering with the IPCC - Early Career Scientists

7 December 2018 (16:30 - 18:00)

Contact: Sarah Connors (sarah.connors@universite-paris-saclay.fr)

For its Sixth Assessment Cycle (AR6), the IPCC has been partnering with Early Career Scientists (ECS) in a variety of roles. This session reviews some of these partnerships, exploring the strength brought to the IPCC from ECS networks and individuals. A panel discussion with questions from the audience will conclude the session.

COP24, Katowice (Pavilion H3)

Partnering with the IPCC - Early Career Scientists

7 December 2018 (16:30 - 18:00)

Provisional Programme

Opening and Welcome
16.30-16.35	Welcome and Introduction	Sarah Connors IPCC WGI TSU Science Officer
Partnering with the IPCC - Early Career Scientists
16.35-16.50	The importance of Early Career Scientists in the IPCC 10 mins talk with 5 mins Q&A	Valérie Masson-Delmotte IPCC WGI Co-Chair
16.50-17.05	The role of the chapter scientist 10 mins talk and 5 mins Q&A	Tania Guillen, Kiane de Kleine SR1.5°C Chapters 3 & 4 Scientists
17.05-17.15	Talk YESS community interactions with the IPCC 10 mins talk	Gaby Langendijk (remote) YESS representative
17.15-17.30	APECS Early Career Scientist Group Review of SROCC 10 mins talk and 5 mins Q&A	Mathieu Casado, Jilda Caccavo APECS representatives
17.30-17.45	General Discussion 15 mins
17.45-17.50	Closing remarks	Sarah Connors IPCC WGI TSU Science Officer