

COP24, Katowice (Pavilion H3)

Challenges of Climate education and role of the IPCC and UNFCCC

Wednesday, 12 December (11:30 - 13:00)

Contact: Robin Matthews (robin.matthews@universite-paris-saclay.fr)

To present challenges and solutions for delivering climate education, and to discuss the role of the IPCC and UNFCCC.

COP24, Katowice (Pavilion H3)

Provisional Programme

11:30-11:36	Opening and Welcome	Robin Matthews IPCC WGI TSU
11:37-11:49	What role can the IPCC play in Climate Education? Outlines a strategy for how the IPCC can support, and IPCC reports can be used for, climate education. A broad conceptual framework for teaching climate change will be presented, which combines the core concepts of each IPCC Working Group.	Robin Matthews IPCC WGI TSU
11:50-11:58	Video presentation: ART + SCIENCE – A unique and powerful way to tell the story of climate change The Environmental Graphiti project and the front cover artwork for the SR1.5 front cover	Alisa Singer Environmental Graphiti
12:00-12:12	Global challenges in delivering Climate Education The goals and scope of climate education, ways to build capacity in its delivery, and how to integrate it into existing teaching frameworks	Mark McCaffrey National University for Public Service, Hungary
12:15-12:27	Climate education in a Developing Country context A brief description of how education is in Latin America and how much is invested in climate education and sustainable development with the first focus in Mexico.	Danaé Espinoza Latin American and Caribbean Youth Climate Movement – CLIC!
12:30-12:58	Panel discussion	Moderator: Valérie Masson-Delmotte (IPCC WGI Co-Chair) Panelists: Danaé Espinoza , Robin Matthews, Mark McCaffrey
12:58-13:00	Closing remarks	Robin Matthews