IPCC Head of Communications

The role of the IPCC is ...

"... to assess on a comprehensive, objective, open and transparent basis the scientific, technical and socio-economic information relevant to understanding the scientific basis of risk of human-induced climate change, its potential impacts and options for adaptation and mitigation."

"IPCC reports should be neutral with respect to policy, although they may need to deal objectively with scientific, technical and socio-economic factors relevant to the application of particular policies."

Every bit of warming matters

Every year matters

Every choice matters

Land is where we live

Land is under growing human pressure

Land is a part of the solution

But land can't do it all

Our ocean and cryosphere -

They sustain us.
They are under pressure.
Their changes affect all our lives.

The time for action is now.
