

Land Emissions and the Global Stocktake

Tuesday, 3rd Dec (14:00-15:30)

Location: IPCC Pavilion, Hall 6 (Blue Zone)

Short description (max 250 words):

This event will look at accounting methods for global GHG emissions and what countries are doing.

Provisional Programme

Moderator: Raphael Slade, Head TSU Science, WG III
Time	Description	Speaker
5 mins	Welcome and a note on SRCCL.	Raphael Slade
20 mins	Current estimates of land-related global emissions and mitigation potentials/scenarios.	Lou Verchot
20 mins	Differences in land CO2 fluxes between global models and country GHG inventories: implications for the Global Stocktake	Giacomo Grassi
10 mins	Emissions and accounting - A German perspective (TBD)	German Delegation Speaker TBC
10 mins	Emissions and accounting – a Mexican Perspective (TBD)	María Amparo Martínez, Mexico Focal Point to the IPCC
25 mins	Q&A session	All
	Closing Remarks/Summary	Raphael Slade