

Youth, Children, Education
& Skills

TRANSFORMING EDUCATION TO EMPOWER YOUTH AND ENHANCING THE PARTICIPATION OF YOUNG PEOPLE IN CLIMATE CHANGE SCIENCE AND IPCC PROCESS: CHALLENGES, OPPORTUNITIES, LESSONS LEARNED

DATE
14:30 – 16:30 UTC +4
10:30 – 12:00 GMT
8 December 2023

JOIN IN-PERSON
Science for Climate Action Pavilion
COP28 Blue Zone

JOIN ONLINE
YOUTUBE/IPCC

Draft Programme

Introduction

Opportunities from IPCC Scholarship Programme

Mxolisi Shongwe - Programme Officer from IPCC Secretariat

Opportunities, lessons and impacts in enhancing participation of young scientists in climate change science and in IPCC – a Global view

Jean Pascal Van Ypersele – Former IPCC Vice Chair

Lessons and Experience from Japan initiative in enhancing participation of young scientists in the IPCC
Takeshi Enoki - Taskforce on National Greenhouse Gas Inventories (TFI) Co-Chair

Opportunities and challenges in enhancing the participation of Young People in climate change Science and in IPCC - a case of Ghana and Africa

Nana Ama Browne Klutse – IPCC Bureau Member

To share lessons learned and impacts of enhancing the participation of young scientists in climate change science and IPCC - a Case of Europe

Sonia Seneviratne: IPCC Bureau Member

Perspective about challenges and initiatives in enhancing the participation of young scientists in climate change science and IPCC – a case of Kenya and developing countries

Patricia Nying'uro – IPCC Focal Point for Kenya

Panelists: Francisca Cortés Solari - President Philanthropy Cortes Solari, Larissa Demel UNICEF Climate and Sustainability, Eric Gilyardi - Office for Climate Education; Patricia Crifo - Professor, E4C and Climate and Sustainable Finance Commission of ACPR; and Juliet Oluoch – YOUNGO representative.

#IPCC #COP28

ipcc
INTERGOVERNMENTAL PANEL ON climate change

